New Urban Arts SUMMER STUDIO

ART INQUIRY:

12:00-3:30pm; Monday-Thursday
July 12 – August 12

Applications Due Monday June 14

10 paid positions for high school students

Working with artist mentors, Alice Costas and Jane Androski, create new work and co-teach public workshops around this summer's theme of "encounter." Spend the summer noticing, exploring, and examining the encounters we have every day -- with others, the city, or nature. What interrupts us when we are on our way someplace? How is taking a walk like making art? Act as artists, facilitators, catalysts and interventionists. Youth receive a $400 stipend for their participation.

UNTITLEMENT PROJECT

12:00-3:30pm; Monday-Friday
July 12 – August 12

Applications Due Monday June 14

10 paid positions for high school students

What does it mean to be a girl? How do you define masculinity? Explore gender, relationships and identity through artmaking and conversation. This summer program will train students to lead a series of roundtables at our studio in Fall 2010. Boys attend Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. Girls attend Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Youth receive a $400 stipend for their participation.

ZINE CAMP

12:00-5:00pm; Monday-Friday
August 2 – August 6

Open Enrollment, Drop in Anytime!

High school students and New Urban Arts alumni are invited to join up with artist mentor Meredith Younger and alumni student Emely Barroso to learn the how's and why's of self-publishing and the history of zine making. Each camper will make their own zine, meet local zine makers, and participate in New Urban Arts annual Zine Swap.

OPEN STUDIO

4:00-7:00pm; Monday-Thursday
July 12 – August 12

Open Enrollment, Drop in Anytime!

Free for high school students

Take a break from sweating and sleeping and come by the New Urban Arts studio to invent creative projects only hot summer days can inspire. Develop photographs in our darkroom. Learn to screen print posters. Make a stop-motion animation video. Paint, draw, collage, it's up to you! Hide from the sun in our art studio and work independently or collaborate with student alumni.

About Summer Studio

Are you a high school student or know one who is interested in being involved with New Urban Arts this summer?

New Urban Arts is accepting applications for 25 paid summer apprenticeships in the arts.

Youth receive $400 stipends for their participation. Lunch, snacks and Riptiks are provided to students at no cost.

Applications are due Monday, June 14th.

Download a Summer Studio Application from our website at www.newurbanarts.org. Call 401.751-4556 to have an application mailed to you.

If you are unable to participate in the intensive program schedules for the paid apprenticeships, visit New Urban Arts during Open Studio hours to self-direct creative projects under mentorship by New Urban Arts graduates. Open Studio is a free, drop in summer program available July 12- August 12, Monday through Thursday, 4-7pm.

About New Urban Arts

New Urban Arts is a nationally recognized community arts studio and gallery in Providence, Rhode Island that brings together emerging artists and public high school students through yearlong mentoring relationships. Our mission is to build a vital community that empowers young people to develop a creative practice they can sustain throughout their lives.

In 2009, New Urban Arts received the Coming Up Taller Award, the nation's highest honor for the field of out-of-school time arts and humanities programs given by the President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities.
